ty-two members of the Scard of Alderman, the Mayor and Recorder, it requires thirteen members to make a quorum.]

The Charman announced that several members were down stars, and the Sergeant-at-Arms reports that they will be up in a few minutes.

After waiting some time, no other member came in.
Supervisor Tucker said that it had been charged that the whig members had refused to attend a meeting. It should be now stated that none of the democratic members, except Supervisor Jackson, attended in their places this evening.

The Charmann wished it to be understood that the body wanted but one member to constitute a quorum; and that though there were several members below, they refused to come up stairs.

Supervisor Voorins said that the Recorder and seven or eight other democratic members, all except Mayor Wood and Alderman Hoffmire, who were out of town, were below stairs, and refused to come up and make a quorum. He was surprised that the Chairman No. 2 (Varian.) and the Alderman of the Saxin ware (Clancey.) who were so anxious to meet, would not wo come up, when the presence of even one of them would make a quorum. There were reversi persons waiting for payment of their bills, and he hoped it would be made known through the presence of even one of them would make a quorum of their bills, and he hoped it would be made known through the press who were absent and who were present.

After some observations on he form of adjournment, the Chairman decided that the body could not adjourn to any particular day, but that her was to a quorum the Supervisors stood acjourned subject to a legal call.

The President in the chair. The minutes were read LOCATION OF THE NEW CITY HALL.

Alderman VARIAN moved to take up his resolution to locate the proposed new City Hall in Madison square. Alderman CLANCY opposed it, and said if the Alderman took the advantage of some of the down town members, who were out of their seats, he would, at the next meet have his resolution respinded, for there was a majorty in the Board inversible to the Fark, as the only pro-per and truly convenient location; further, that a report had already been passed, and had occume a law, to locate the new City Hall in the Fark; and the question being put, the motion to take the matter from the table was last, by a vote of seven in the affirmative to ten in the negative.

Alderman Hercies offered a preamile and resolution relative to the Brick church property:—That notwithstanding the restrictions and cotodit as of the lease to John Rudgers and others, February 25, 1766, had not been removed, the property this day has been sold by the consent of the Camproller. On the presentation of an ordinance adopted by the Councilmen for the laying out of Central park, and appending the Mayor and aftered Commissioner as a Board of Commissioners for that purpose, Alderman Tucker moved that the matter be referred.

Alderman Voorms, in seconding the motion, repudiated the loca of placing in the hands of the Mayor and Street Commissioner such unlimited power. He thought the Mayor had quite enough to do in attending to the police of the city; and the street Commissioner, who is already asking for increase of salary, would perhaps come forward and sak for ten thousand dollars, in consequence of this additional duty. It was a shameful, disgraceful job, ward and say for ten incursan course, in some decade of this anditional duty. It was a shameful, disgraceful job, and though threats had been made to memoers of the Councinness by some of the persons in Mr. Taylor's em-ploy, that if this thing was not carried through, the members of the Common Council should not have any members of the Common Council should not have any appointments for Inspectors, he (Alderman Veorhis) spurned such threats; no man should deter him from a conscientious vote in any matter that came before the Board. A Sunday paper had been sent to his (Alderman Veorhis) house, and no doubt every member of the Board had received one, in which Joe Taylor was spoken of as a merchant—a Solomon. He hoped the master would be referred. He was not opposed to the appointment of commissioners, but be thought fire should be appointed, or if only two, he had no doubt they would on redection get two as good, if not better, than Joe Taylor and his bourt the Mayor.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN. The Board held its fifth regular session for May at the council room last evening, President Pinckney in the chair. Feveral petitions and resolutions were presented and referred. The following was adopted:—

Resolved. That the Commissioner of Streets be, and is herery, ordered to remove the floating chapel at the foot of Laight atreet forthwith.

Also, the following:

Whereas, the enlargement of the Battery progresses slowly, being a little more than one-half complete, although the contract see given out on the 25th Nowember, 1862, and should have been firshed on the 25th November 1865; and inasmuch as there is a question of the legalty of the doubtract, therefore, be it.

Resolved, That the report of the special committee made upon fire enlargement of the Battery on the 27th Descenter, 1855, and all the papers in connection therewith, be, and are hereby taken from the flas and referred to Committee on Wharves, Pless and Silps of this Board for their consideration and report.

May 14, 1856.

Mr. Putury did not wish to condemn Mayor Barker, whom he believed was an honorable man, and he believed the adoption of the report would have that effect. The Common Council had taken action against the Commissioners, and he feared to create a serious misunder-or the lamps at each street corner; as, also, directing to be conspicuously painted the number of each house in every arrest opposite a public lamp. It was decided, before reporting upon the matter, to call a public meeting in the chamber of the Board next Monday, at five o'clock, to hear statements from proper parties as to the practicability and expense of carrying the scheme proposed into effect.

SPRINKLING THE STREETS. The Alderman Committee on Croton Aquedact Department, Alderman Ely chairman, met yesterday, at 10 A. ment, Alderman Ely chairman, met yesterday, at 10 A.
M., at the office of the Croton Aqueduct Department, and, in connection with the officers of the Croton Aqueduct Department, witnessed the trial in Chambers street of a number of machines constructed for sprinkling the streets. Seven different machines appeared. After a thorough trial of the machines the committee decided to choose one submitted by Mr. L. Fower. His machine comprises a semi-effcusar tube, six feet long, attached to the hogshead of water, with holes perforated on the bottom. All the others submitted, as also those in use heretofore, had holes perforated on the ends and sides. The apparatus chosen, it was found, was sufficient to lay the dust thoroughly, without leaving the streets muddy, which has been the invariable objection heretofore to all street sprinklers. It may be stared as an interesting fact, that nearly five hundred persons are engaged during the summer months in sprinkling the streets of the city. No license is required. The only obligation is to pay the Croton Aqueduct Department two cents a bogshead for the water used, and use the sprinkling apparatus adopted by the Common Council.

THE CHARGE OF CORRUPTION AGAINST THE COUNCILMEN COMMITTEE ON THE STREETS.

The special committee of the Board of Councilmen delegated to examine, with the charge of corruption pre-ferred against the Committee on Streets of this Board, in the matter of the proposal to widen Beekman street, adjourned to meet this afternoon, at 3½ o'dook, at the chamber of the Board. It is expected that further inves-tigation into the subject of the charge will implicate there parties than the City Librarian, the only party thus far implicated.

THE LATE PATAL ACCIDENT ON THE THIRD AVENUE RAILnear.—Ceroner Hanford heid an inquest on Tuesday upon the body of the child Henry Weaver, which came to its death by being run over by one of the cars of the Greenword line. The child, it appears, was crossing the track when the accident occurred. The wheels passed over the legs and severed them from the body. The conductor was driving at the tume, the driver being at dinner. Several witconese were examined, and the jury rendered the robbeting vergicit:—"That Henry Weaver, if., came to his death from injuries received by being run over by car No. 75 of the Brooklyn Gity Raifrond Company, on Third areanne, near Twenty mixth street, on the 12th inst. The jury also find that there is gross missansagement on the part of the Brooklyn Gity Raifrond Company, in not providing some other means by which conductors and orivers can take their means it than the custom now in practice, of the conductor relieving the driver for the purpose of taking his meals in the car, which custom is uneafe and improper; and that, in the opinion of the jury, this casualty would have been avoided had there been a driver and a conductor on duty at the time." The conductor, who was taken into custody, was libsrated, there being no complaint made against him. Beap .- Geroner Hanford held an inquest on Tuesday upon

The attendance was numerous, embracing a large num of clergymen. After about twenty minutes' walk we reached the Home, which is situated on an eminence, surrounded by a fine grove, and which commands a full view of "the Kills," &c. Upon entaring the large room up stairs, in which the exercises took place, we found a large audience assembled. The children, to the number of over a hundred boys and girls, were seated in tiers upon a stage at one end of the room, facing the audience. They all looked the picture of health and good teeding, and were exceedingly neat in their apparel. None of them appeared to be over ten or eleven years of age, and some were quite tiny little creatures.

The Rev. C. S. Jones was the next speaker. He considered the hundred little ones sitting before the audience afforced the strongest argument that a still further Christian help should be extended to the society. He labored much among seamen, and he had he best of evidence this last winter of the vicinsitudes to which the families of seamen were exposed. He knew of many children having been left helpies orphans, their ill fated fathers engulied beneath the angry billows during the terrific storms of the past white. It was, therefore, a source of most unmitigated satisfaction to every Christian heart that remedial agencies were at work to alleviate the sorrows, the privations and the self denial of the seafaring man, and especially at this generous provision for the protestion of poor Jack's little ones.

The Rev. Mr. ECCLENTON followed, with some remarks addressed to the children for their spiritual edification, of the necessity of their choosing the service of God and avoiding the allurements of vice.

The Rev. Dr. EARLEN gave his most cordial assent to all that had been said there to-day. The object of the society met his hearty approval, and he trusted it would go on prospering for the bodily and spiritual benefit of the little helpiess once confided to its charge. It was a matter for rejoicing, that although cities were the convers of all that was most degraded and debased of crime an vice, yet it was in their midst that the most extended and benevoleet phi anthropy was to be witnessed. Giornous were all the great commercial edities, however, in their midst that the most extended and benevoleet phi anthropy was to be witnessed. Giornous were made for the disabled seaman or his helpless orphan family. He (Dr. F.) would content himself with saying thisgmuch further: "God speed you, Christian men and women, in your benevalent undertaking."

May 14.—Edward Riley was put on trial, charged with mayhem, in having bitten off the nose of Cornelius Scanmayhem, in having bitten on the nose of Cornelius Scanlon, a ship carpenter, at a porter house in Seventh street, on the evening of the 16th April last. It appeared from the testimony, that the parties met at the porter house on the evening aforesaid and took sevamid drinks together, during which Scanlon displayed three twenty dollar gold pieces, which excited the cupidity of Riley, who called Scanlon aside and selved him by the nose with his testh, while he attempted to rob his vest pockets. They were reparated by the keeper of the porter house, when it was found that Scanlon's nose was partially bitten off and otherwise mangled. As the nose was not entirely destroyed, and could not technically be said to have been shit, the Judge charged that the crime of mayhem was not legally established, but that the prisoner might be found guilty of assault and battery with intent to commit that crime, or simply of asseult and battery, according as the jury view the testimony. The jury returned a verdict of assault and battery with intent to commit mayhem, and the prisoner was sentenced to the full term of five years in the State prison. The Recorder remarking that he was happy in being able to rid the community of so desperate a character as the prisoner was well known to be.

lately which, besides being an admirable one in itself, has uncovered a battery which will lead to a certain checkmate uncovered a battery which will lead to a certain checkmate unless warded off by some remarkable play. Bushanan has thrown himself back on his Ostend document as a reply to the charge that the North and East are for him. This Ostend proclamation comes in at a time when the President least expected it, and puts the executive on the defensive, and will force him either into the abandonment of his aspirations for the nomination, or the abandonment of Marcy's Cuba policy.

Who killed the Cuba question' Does the President sus-tain Marcy? Does he sustain the position, of Mason, Soulé and Buchanan? The President must meet the issue, and either endorse Marcy's management of the Cu-ban question or differ openly with his Premier. The publication of the Ostend document referred to would be well timed, and the readers of the Heraid will see at a glance the important bearing it will have on the Presion the strength of that Ostend matter, to-day, if it were not for his animosity to Slidell, who is one of Mr. Buchs. Soulé and the Cuba and Nicaragua men will combine at Cincinnati against the President. The manner in which the Cuban question was treated, and the concessions made to England, even to the insulting of Nicaragua, while fighting gallantly for her freedom, will finish Marcy, and the President will be held steraly to account for his approva; of the Minister's diplomacy.

There is a riy game being played for Callas during all this storm. The public will remember how suddenly his name was withdrawn after being for some time discussed as available for the Presidency. There is no doubt that his riteds thought his oest coance consisted in a masterly inactivity. His withdrawing pleased Pierce, because it was well known that Soulé, Perkins and other leading men of the South were for him. The Secretary of War, it is certain, prefers him after Pierce, Bushanan's friends, on the other hand, in Pennylvania, were delighted to get Dallas out of the way, and no doubt made proper concessions. Beyond doubt Dallas is the second choice of the Keystone state. If the Western men find it impossible to get in their favorite (Douglas), thay will combine against Pierce, who will alone prevent Douglas) momination if the author of the Noorasa bill is postponed. They will hardly go for Buchanan. The feud, indeed, is so bitter between the three preminent candidates, that it is almost certain now, that neither will receive the vote of the Convention. In such event, a Southern man may be taken up as it is believed that a Southern Mebraska man. In view of such a continguory, there is a little private characteriatic affair going on between them and havis, these two gentlemen and their immediate friends having determined to combine against Rusk of Texas, as that gentleman is supposed to stand well with the people, and therefore must be killed off.

There is a rumor in political circles that the masses of the soft party do not follow their leaders on the Nebraska principle. It is said the Buffalo plank inserted originally was placed there to please the voters, and afterwards removed to please the com
